

(H. B. 316.)

AN ACT

TO AMEND SECTION (4) FOUR, OF CHAPTER (95) NINETY-FIVE, OF THE GENERAL STATUTES OF THE STATE OF COLORADO, ENTITLED "ROADS AND HIGHWAYS."

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

SECTION 1. Section four (4), of chapter ninety-five (95), of the General Statutes of the State of Colorado, entitled "Roads and Highways," is hereby amended to read as follows, to wit: The board of county commissioners may alter, widen, or change, any established road, or lay out any new road, in their respective counties, when petitioned by ten (10) freeholders residing within two (2) miles of the road sought to be altered, widened, changed, or laid out. Said petition shall set forth a description of the road sought to be altered, widened, or changed; and if the petition be for a new road, it shall set forth the points where the road is to commence and terminate, its general course and distance; Provided, The commissioners of the county may, at any regular meeting, by an order of the board, declare any section, or township line on the public domain, a public highway; and on and after the date of such order, which shall be attested by the clerk, under the seal of the county, and recorded in the office of recorder of deeds, the road so laid out shall be a public highway.

County commissioners may alter highways.
